India and Hong Kong SAR sign
Agreement on Transfer of Sentenced Persons

PRESS RELEASE

India and Hong Kong Special Administrative Region (HKSAR) of People's Republic of China signed an Agreement on Transfer of Sentenced Persons today. The Agreement was signed in Hong Kong by Prashant Agrawal, India's Consul General to Hong Kong, and Mr. Lai Tung Kwok, Hon. Secretary for Security of HKSAR.

Consul General Prashant Agrawal conveyed that conclusion of the Agreement would enable transfer and social rehabilitation of those under its purview, and thanked authorities in Hong Kong for their support. The Agreement would add to the existing framework of institutional cooperation mechanisms between India and HKSAR, under which there exists excellent cooperation between law enforcement authorities of the two sides.
